NDTC 101A - Great Neighborhoods: Every Voice Engaged

Every Voice Engaged Foundation will be conducting a two-session workshop to assist San Jose Neighborhood Associations in identifying potential safety, beautification, and other projects for their neighborhood. Everyone is welcome to attend the conference. However, those wishing to apply for a San Jose Cycle 26 CAP grant MUST attend NDTC 101A, 101B, and the closing session (3 neighborhood association members minimum) in order to qualify. Please sign up for only two additional workshops.

NDTC 101B - Great Neighborhoods: Every Voice Engaged (Part 2)

The second session will prioritize ideas and select one to apply for a City of San Jose mini-grant. Every Voice Engaged facilitators will provide hands-on assistance with completing applications for approval the same day. Everyone is welcome to attend the conference. However, those wishing to apply for a San Jose Cycle 26 CAP grant MUST attend NDTC 101A, 101B, and the closing session (3 neighborhood association members minimum) in order to qualify. Please sign up for only two additional workshops.

NDTC 102 - Silicon Valley Energy Watch

Energy resources available to all County residents and businesses through working partnerships, plus an overview of how to make your home energy sustainable and energy efficient.

NDTC 103 - Financial Capacity Building

Lending industry leaders will present the latest tools available for neighborhood leaders to increase their capacities to effectively manage their financial futures and assist others with budgeting, credit and debt management, and homeownership.

NDTC 104 - CommUniverCity: Engaging Residents through Service-Learning

Learn how CommUniverCity is working with the neighborhoods surrounding San José State University and other stakeholders in building community by engaging residents and students in service learning projects that accomplish neighborhood-driven goals.

NDTC 105 - NEWater? Recycling Gives Water a Second Chance!

Silicon Valley's new Advanced Water Purification Center provides for tomorrow's sustainable drinking water supply- see what NEWater is and how it happens.

NDTC 106 - Garden to Table: Grow, Harvest, Share

This workshop will teach the basics of organizing neighborhood gardens and a community fruit tree sharing program. Learn how to engage homeowners, apartment owners and renters in growing produce, providing locally harvested food to those in need, increasing social interaction and experiencing the rewards of gardening and responsible Earth stewardship.

NDTC 107 - Neighborhood Association Best Practices

Learn and discuss "Best Practices" in improving your neighborhood association and member participation/ performance from two different leadership group perspectives.

NDTC 108 - Problem Properties, Landlords and Tenants in Your Neighborhood?

Join United Neighborhoods and Neighborhood Housing Services for an opportunity to see how the Responsible Landlords Engagement Initiative (RLEI) can - and has provided help with proven solutions.

Workshops Descriptions

NDTC 109 - Practical Solutions for Public Safety

Do you feel your neighborhood is safe? Learn how to use basic tools available to make your neighborhood the place you want to live.

NDTC 110 - Housing Actions Coalitions: Strengthening Your Voice

How a group of residents can become a powerful united voice persuading developers to say YES!

NDTC 111 - PACT: People Acting in Community Together

PACT is a multi-ethnic, interfaith organization that empowers everyday people. You can learn how to work together, act together and move to action together. You will learn the ABC's of how residents can work together as a grassroots community effectively using participation, inspiring hope, creating change.

NDTC 112 - Neighborhood Leadership Development

What does it mean to be a community leader? What responsibilities do they have and what challenges do we face today? This workshop will share some of the values, qualities, and skills of effective leaders.

NDTC 113 - Safe Families: Resources to Prevent Family Violence

When families aren't safe, they can't provide a refuge from the challenges that children and youth face. Creating safe families needs to be supported by our communities. Developing strong relationships by supporting strong families needs to be our highest priority. This workshop will share information about family violence, how common it is and resources available to help.

NDTC 114 - Neighborhood Communication Skills and Tools

Sharpen writing, photo, web and communication skills and learn how to create a free and private neighborhood social networking site through www.nextdoor.com and connect to a community news and resource site, www.neighborwebsj.com.

NDTC 115 - College Youth in Service to Communities

College students can be a valuable resource for your community. Learn from faculty and students themselves what services they provide, what involvement they prefer, and why they serve. Learn the access points and the language of student "community service learning" at high school and college levels. Address challenges, expectations, and questions of student engagement.

NDTC 116 - Voting Matters in Neighborhoods

The American Leadership Group and League of Women Voters will educate and lead a discussion on November Election ballot issues affecting you, your neighborhood and your state.
